TALK OF THE TOWN

Local Happenings Tensely Told for Busy Readers.

New messaline silks at Abbott's.
New gingham at Veale & Knight's.
Angelo Scampini was in Northfield on business yesterday.

B. W. Hooker & Co.'s store will close at noon Friday, Lincoln's birthday.
Miss Eva Sargent of Woodville, N. H., was a visitor in this city yesterday.

New patterns in negligee shirts at 50c. See the Frank McWhorter Co.'s window.
Berness E. Waterman went to Burlington this morning on a business visit.

Hurdy gurdy dancing to-night at Hale's Pavilion. Open at 7:30 o'clock. Come and have a good time.

Mrs. Colburn, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Reed, returned to her home in Plattsburg, N. Y., to-day.

Mrs. Mabel R. Dane of Newport, president of the Rebekah assembly of Vermont, is visiting Mrs. Frank W. Jackson.

Frank Barr and Louis Rainault left yesterday for Texas, where they expect to reside and work at their trade of granite cutting.

A short business meeting of the Presbyterian Y. P. A. minstrels will be held in the vestry of the church this evening at seven o'clock.

Philip Marcotte went to the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington to-day, where he will be operated on for an abscess in his head.

Joseph Granger, a brother of O. N. Granger, and Edward Beneault, his brother-in-law, who came here to see Mr. Granger, returned to their homes in St. Johns, Que., to-day.

Troup's union orchestra is prepared to furnish first class music for any and all occasions; any number of pieces required. Address A. M. Troup, 5 Laurel street, or telephone 181-11.

The W. C. T. U. and the L. O. G. T. will hold a sugar social Friday evening, February 12, in the K. of C. hall. After a short literary program, sugar on snow will be served, followed by marching. Admission ten cents; refreshments ten cents extra.

There will be a special matinee performance of "Under Southern Skies," at the opera house to-morrow afternoon, for which a special price of 25c for school children has been made. The matinee performance will be exactly the same as in the evening.

"Under Southern Skies" is one of the most complete productions that travels. Every scene and property use in the presentation is varied, as is also an electric outfit for the proper lighting of the scenes. At the Barre opera house Friday evening, Feb. 12.

The Red Men hold their annual celebration on Friday evening, Feb. 19, in Miles hall. All members can secure tickets from the following committee: Ira Wright, W. W. Russell, John Paul, W. F. Walker, James Reid, Walter Murray, Ed. McLeod, Alex. McAskill, and Alex. Ross.

Mrs. F. G. Howland gave a very interesting talk to the members of the New England order of Protection last evening. An invitation to the members to attend the tenth anniversary of the institution of the lodge at East Barre to be held Friday evening, Feb. 19, was accepted. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The supper prepared and given by the men of the Congregational church in the church vestry last evening was attended by 242 people. The men proved themselves expert cooks, both on meats and cake, and all of the food served excepting the rolls being prepared by them in the church kitchen, without the aid of wives or sisters. The patronage was very large, so large that some of the later ones did not face so well as those at the first tables, all of which the gentlemen very much regret.

Not only did the Lyman H. Howe company draw its usual large house in Barre last night, but it also sustained fully its reputation for presenting up-to-date and authentic pictures of the scenes which were advertised to be depicted. The Howe pictures are certainly far and away the best of any ever shown here, and the assortment shown last night were the more interesting because of the scenes from the recent earthquake calamity in Sicily and southern Italy. This company has made about sixteen visits to Barre in about half as many years, and always draws a big audience.

The Ladies of the Grand Army will have a social meeting in place of the regular meeting which comes on Friday evening, February 12, at 7:30, and it is especially fitting that the members should each try to make the event an honor to the memory of Abraham Lincoln, the great and wise leader who guided to a glorious victory our fathers, husbands, sons and brothers, who were fighting for the preservation of the country's unity. Let each member come prepared to add something to the interest of the occasion. The ladies extend a hearty invitation to the veterans and any who have cause to remember those dark days of '61-'65.

The Spaulding high school basketball team left this afternoon on a two days' trip, playing the Littleton, N. H., high school this evening and the St. Johnsbury academy to-morrow evening. The Lyndon institute was scheduled to be played on this trip Saturday evening, but the game has been cancelled and the Spaulding team will return from St. Johnsbury Saturday morning. The regular players taken are Arthur Averill, McDonald, Grigg, Malden and Cummings, Riley and Harry Averill, substitutes. Accompanying the team are James Kenefick, who will referee the games, Prof. Hughes, John McGowan and Manager Hugh Carpenter.

The L. C. R. A. will give a Valentine dance next Tuesday evening, February 16th, in the Knights of Columbus' hall. Admission 25 cents. Everybody invited.

Dancing to-night at Hale's Pavilion. Open at 7:30. One 25 cents, ladies free. The hurdy gurdy music is taking well and all seem to be having a good time. Come and see.

Arthur S. Martin left yesterday to spend the remainder of the winter in California. Mr. Martin will be in California about six weeks and intends to visit all parts of the state and will visit some of the principal western cities during his absence.

Mr. Curtis, who has been employed at the Woodbury sheds as one of the stonecutters is ill with pneumonia.

Scarlet fever of a mild type has again appeared and this time Harold, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Shaw has developed the disease.

Miss Blanche Shepard, superintendent of Juvenile Temple work in this town has forty names of children who will form a juvenile temple the first meeting and organization to be on Saturday, Feb. 13. This branch of work is very prosperous here as well as the local lodge of Good Templars, which is increasing in membership and interest.

At the next meeting on Tuesday of the following week there are to be more members received and on Feb. 25 the observance of the anniversary of the formation of the lodge will be marked by a public meeting and appropriate exercises.

Williamstown.

All members of the I. O. O. F. are requested to attend the next regular meeting Friday, February 12.

Mr. Burbank was here the first of the week with a fine line of 1910 calendars which he was taking orders for.

Masquerade promenade Saturday night at town hall. Cake sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee will be served for a small sum.

Concert and Valentine Dance.

The Ebony minstrels will open the season with a concert and Valentine dance celebrating Lincoln's birthday in Woodmen's hall, Friday evening, February 12, 1909. The program for the concert is as follows:

Opening chorus by the Ebonyes.
Solo by Arthur Cole.
Cornet solo by J. W. Sim.
Solo by James Bennett.
Selections by the orchestra.
Fancy drill by Daughters of Clan Gordon.

Admission, 50 cents per couple, concert tickets 15 cents. A good time for all, old or young.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Skirts marked down at Perry's.
New white goods at Veale & Knight's.

S. H. Jones, general manager of the Equitable insurance company of New York, visited the local agents, J. C. Griggs, yesterday.

RANDOLPH

Mrs. Ira Jones is in Royalton with her daughter, Mrs. George Laird, for two weeks.

Mrs. D. E. Goding returned to her home in Malden, Mass., Tuesday, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. M. E. Holmes.

The Randolph Woman's Library club observes guest night to-night at the Parish house with Howard L. Hildley as speaker, and musical selections, besides a banquet.

Appropriate exercises for the observance of Lincoln's day were given in the high school building this afternoon instead of in Music hall, as was first understood. The exercises consisted largely of singing by the different grades, a reading or recitation by Miss Holden, one of the teachers, and others of similar order.

In Grange hall on Tuesday night there were very appropriate exercises in the observance of Abraham Lincoln's birthday, under the auspices of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. The program consisted of vocal solos from Miss Lettie Bailey, Ruth Stark and Fred Goodwin, and musical selections from "The Bunch of Roses." A Lincoln exercise of speaking was given by seventeen high school students. The addresses were given by Dr. F. O. Angell, who spoke upon the topic, "Lincoln's Early Life," Prof. E. G. Ham on "Lincoln as a President," and Mr. Proper on "Lincoln's Death." Mr. Proper was one of those who stood near the president at the time of his assassination and helped to raise him as he fell. Another attractive feature of the evening was a large war tent on the stage, around which were gathered several veterans of the Civil War.
